ON OUR FIELD TRIP

HISTORY IS, STRICTLY SPEAKING,
 THE STUDY OF QUESTIONS;
 THE STUDY OF ANSWERS BELONG
 TO ANTHROPOLOGY AND SOCIOLOGY.

UNF Sociology Department / Campus Tour /
 Center for Community Initiatives Presentation

Who : 28 Sociology Students / Ms. Santos / two volunteer chaperones

What : Visit to UNF for a brief campus tour, a tour of the Sociology department and the Center for Community Initiatives (CCI), presentation by current Sociology Professors , undergraduate and graduate Sociology majors about their current study of Jacksonville’s homeless population, and a free lunch provided by UNF.

When : April 4, 2012 : 7:45 am - 1:30 pm

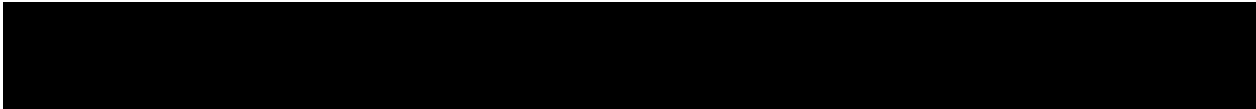

Where : OHS, Argyle Forest Blvd, Blanding, 295 S, 9A E, UNF Drive Exit, UNF

Why : In their introduction to Sociology, students have learned about the behaviors of groups, how similar and different socialization techniques yield differences in culture internationally, and how social issues are developing and may possibly be prevented in the future. Dr. David Jaffee, the Faculty - Student contact for UNF’s Sociology department, visited OHS in January and will lead us to the Center for Community Initiatives to learn about what Sociology majors at UNF, and graduates are doing to promote positivity in our own community.
